

Cari's Professional Book Club Notes

Book Title: A Moving Child is a Learning Child

Authors: Gill Connell and Cheryl McCarthy

Week 1: August 4 – August 10

Read Pages 140-173

Points to ponder as you read:

1. What do you think of the explanation that experience + language = understanding? (discussed on page 140)
2. What are your thoughts on “transferrable language?” Do you typically call this “generalization?” (discussed on page 143)
3. I love the concept of “nutritious language “to refer to powerful, specific words. (discussed on page 143)
4. Do you refer to body language as “physical language?” (discussed on page 145)
5. What are your thoughts on the 5 “dialects “of adult-child communication? (discussed on page 148)
6. Describe the development of directional language. (discussed on page 164)

Thoughts, notes, and questions

Important take-aways to share with parents and caregivers