

Cari's Professional Book Club Notes

Book Title: A Moving Child is a Learning Child

Authors: Gill Connell and Cheryl McCarthy

Week 1: July 21 – 27 Read Pages 66-96

Points to ponder as you read:

1. How does screen play limit “eye fitness?” (discussed on page 69)
2. How is “dialogue in real time” different from the “monologue of virtual experiences?” (discussed on page 76)
3. Describe the importance of the mouthing stage of development. (discussed on page 78)
4. What are your thoughts on the need for children to understand “mess” in order to understand “clean?” (discussed on page 80)
5. Explain the correlation between fidgeting and concentration. (discussed on page 86)
6. How important is body awareness to child development? (discussed on page 91)

Thoughts, notes, and questions

Important take-aways to share with parents and caregivers