

Table of Contents

Part 1: Handouts for Early Intervention Providers Working in the Natural Environment

For provider use only (not for use with parents and caregivers)

Handout 1-1	Key Principles and Best Practices in Early Intervention
Handout 1-2	Skill Set for Effective Early Intervention Providers
Handout 1-3	Preparing for the Early Intervention Session
Handout 1-4	Format of Early Intervention Home Visits
Handout 1-5	Coaching: Facilitating Adult Learning
Handout 1-6	Asking Reflective Questions
Handout 1-7	Getting Caregivers to Follow-Through on the Joint Plan
Handout 1-8	Varied Uses of the Toy Bag in Early Intervention
Handout 1-9	Why You Should Ditch the Toy Bag
Handout 1-10	How to Ditch the Toy Bag
Handout 1-11	Service Delivery in the Childcare Setting

Part 2: Interactive Handouts Regarding the EI Process and Program Expectations for Families Receiving Services Under Part C of IDEA

For Early Intervention service coordinators and service providers to use with parents and caregivers

Handout 2-1	The Early Intervention Team
Handout 2-2	My Early Intervention Team: Contact Information
Handout 2-3	Important Definitions in Early Intervention
Handout 2-4	Pediatric Therapy Service Delivery Models
Handout 2-5	Home Visits, Not Therapy Sessions
Handout 2-6	The Parent's Role in Early Intervention
Handout 2-7	Frequency of Services
Handout 2-8	Relationships in Early Intervention
Handout 2-9	Why No Toy Bag?
Handout 2-10	Preparing for the Home Visit

Part 3: Interactive Handouts Related to Early Child Development

For Early Intervention service providers, pediatric therapists, Early Head Start teachers, parent educators, and other early childhood professionals to use with parents and caregivers

Handout 3-1	Establishing Healthy Screen Time Habits
Handout 3-2	Relationship-Based Learning
Handout 3-3	Gross Motor Milestones
Handout 3-4	What's Wrong with Baby Containers?

Handout 3-5	What's Wrong with W-Sitting
Handout 3-6	Fine Motor Milestones
Handout 3-7	Learning to Feed Myself
Handout 3-8	Help...My Child is Drooling!
Handout 3-9	Help...My Child is Biting!
Handout 3-10	What's Wrong with Pouch Eating?
Handout 3-11	What's Wrong with Sippy Cups?
Handout 3-12	Pacifier, Binky, Paci
Handout 3-13	Learning Opportunities During Daily Routines
Handout 3-14	Teaching Imitation Skills
Handout 3-15	Developmental Benefits of Traditional (non-screen) Play
Handout 3-16	Parent Self-Assessment of Play Time Behaviors
Handout 3-17	Play Time Strategies
Handout 3-18	Too Many Toys for Toddlers
Handout 3-19	Two Types of Toys
Handout 3-20	Why Low-Tech Toys are Best
Handout 3-21	Choosing the Right Books for Little Hands
Handout 3-22	Reading to Your Toddler
Handout 3-23	What's the Difference Between Speech and Language?
Handout 3-24	Receptive Language Milestones
Handout 3-25	Speech and Expressive Language Milestones
Handout 3-26	First Words: More than ABCs and 1-2-3s
Handout 3-27	First Words: Expressive Vocabulary Checklist
Handout 3-28	Talking to your Toddler
Handout 3-29	Strategies for Supporting Speech and Language Development
Handout 3-30	Let's Talk About Baby Talk
Handout 3-31	Learning Two Languages
Handout 3-32	Using Sign Language with Your Child
Handout 3-33	Understanding the Functions of Behavior
Handout 3-34	35 Alternatives to Screen Time for Toddlers